Privacy Notice for Younger Pupils/Students
(Year 6 and Below)

(Full version)

Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why Windsor WAT Trust (WAT) collects your child's personal information and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your child's information.

The Academy is part of the Windsor WAT Trust (WAT). WAT operates the Academy and is ultimately responsible for how the WAT handles personal information about your child.

We are giving you this notice because you are able to exercise your child's data protection rights on their behalf. When your child is older (usually when they reach the age of 12) they will be considered mature enough to exercise their own data protection rights.

If you have any questions about this notice please talk to the Data Protection Lead.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that the WAT holds about your child and which identifies your child.

This includes information such as their date of birth and address as well as things like exam results, medical details, unique pupil number and behaviour records. We will also hold information such as your child's religion or ethnic group. CCTV, Images such as photos and video recordings of your child are also personal information.

Our legal grounds for using your child's information

This section contains information about the legal bases that we are relying on when handling your child's information.

The tables below contain a general description of the different legal bases. We have also used a colour code system so that you can see which bases we are relying on for each of the purposes described .

Legal obligation ("LO")

The WAT might need to use your child's information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern about your child's wellbeing to Children's Services. We will also have to disclose your child's information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so.

Vital interests ("VI")

In limited circumstances we may use your child's information to protect their vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if they are seriously hurt).

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest ("PI")

This applies where what we are doing is for the benefit of the public generally. The following are examples of where this applies:

- providing your child and others with an education;
- safeguarding and promoting your child's welfare and the welfare of your child's classmates;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the WAT; and

- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

Legitimate interests ("LI")

This means that the WAT is using your child's information when this is necessary for the WAT's legitimate interests except when your child's interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests. We won't rely on this basis when your child's interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests.

We have a legitimate interest in using your child's information to:

- i. promote the WAT including fundraising and publicity;
- i. preserve historical school records.

The WAT must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories include: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

Substantial public interest ("SPI")

The WAT is allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in the table above. For example, the WAT will use information about your child's health to look after them. We may also use other types of special category personal data about your child to provide them with an education, to look after your child and their classmates or when the WAT is inspected

Social protection and social security law ("ESP")

There will be times when the WAT needs to use your child's information because we are an employer (e.g. we employ your child's teachers). Also the WAT will use your child's information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after them) and social security laws (e.g. to provide your child with free school lunches if they are entitled to these). Social protection law is concerned with preventing, managing, and overcoming situations that adversely affect people's wellbeing.

Vital interests

In limited circumstances we may use your child's information to protect their vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if they are seriously hurt).

Legal claims ("LC")

We are allowed to use your child's information if this is necessary in relation to legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers. This applies whenever sharing special category data is necessary in relation to legal claims.

Medical purposes ("MP")

This includes medical treatment and the management of healthcare services.

More than one basis

As you will see from the information above, in some cases we will rely on more than one basis for a particular use of your child's information. In addition, we may move from one of the legal bases listed above to another as circumstances change. For example, as a safeguarding matter becomes more serious, we may start to rely on legal obligation to share personal information with the local authority in addition to the other legal bases which are noted for safeguarding purposes.

Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your child's information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the bases in the table above. For example, we may ask for your consent before taking or using some photographs and videos if the photograph or video is more intrusive and we cannot rely on our legitimate interests or it being in the public interest. If we ask for your consent to use your child's personal information you can take back this consent at any time.

Any use of your child's information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to your child's form teacher if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

We need to send your child's information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. .

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: http://ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/international-transfers/adequacy/index_en.htm

If the country that we are sending your child's information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Data Protection Lead..

For how long do we keep your child's information?

We keep your child's information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after them. We will keep certain information after your child has left the WAT, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your child's information for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be found on our websites.
